Details Mentioned

The document is a tabular register containing multiple baptismal entries. Due to the volume of individuals, here is a breakdown of the structure and key examples:

Document Structure:

- Dies et mensis (Date and Month): Records the date, and often the specific time (e.g., 'hora 8va pomerid' - 8 PM), of the birth or baptism, along with the location (primarily Arnstein or Heugrumbach).
- Parentes (Parents): Lists the father's full name, occupation, and civic status (e.g., 'civis' for citizen, 'incola' for resident), followed by the mother's first name and maiden name ('nata').
- Baptizati et Baptizans (Baptized and Baptizer): Provides the given name(s) of the child and the name or title of the officiating priest (e.g., 'a me' - by me, 'a P. D. Suell'). This column frequently contains later marginal notes indicating the child's subsequent marriage ('cop.') or death ('ob.') with the corresponding date.
- Patrini (Godparents): Lists the names, occupations, and relationships of the godparents.

- Child: Joannes
- Baptism Date: September 11, 1794, in Arnstein
- Parents: Georgius Schmitt (citizen and bathhouse keeper) and Apollonia (née Götzin)
- Godparent: Joannes Keupp (youth, son of Valentinus Keupp, citizen)

- Child: Joannes Philippus
- Baptism Date: January 24, 1795, in Arnstein
- Parents: Heinricus Zang (citizen) and Barbara (née Alberti from Hundsfeld)
- Godparent: Philippus Paulus Zang (honorable widower)
- Note: A marginal annotation states 'ob. 2. Oct. 1859', indicating Joannes Philippus died on October 2, 1859.

Notable Events:

- Emergency Baptisms: Several entries (e.g., Page 252, Row 7; Page 253, Rows 7 & 8) note that an infant died immediately after birth and was baptized by the midwife ('ab obstetrice baptizata statim obiit').

Key Findings

- The document is a detailed Catholic baptismal register from 1794-1795 for the parish of Arnstein and the village of Heugrumbach.
- It provides rich genealogical data, including the exact dates of baptism, parents' names (with mothers' maiden names), fathers' occupations, and the identities of godparents.
- The register contains valuable later annotations that track the life events of the baptized individuals, such as marriages and deaths occurring decades later, providing a rare glimpse into their full lifespans.
